Diana,

We believe that it is part of the committee's fiduciary duties to inquire into the assets of the title III debtors (especially since the title III debtors are not required to file schedules of assets). Moreover, as you know, we narrowly tailored our request to Commonwealth accounts with balances of $2 million or more. For these reasons, we believe that this request is perfectly appropriate (and it is certainly not dispositive that this request wasn't part of the Rule 2004 requests).

Best regards,

Alex

Alex,

We've had some questions from the client as to what the purpose of the bank account request is since it wasn't include in the 2004 requests. Can you give us some color?

Thanks,

Diana

Diana,

Thank you for the update. I also understand that things are on hold until after Hurricane Irma has passed.

Alex,

We are still working with the government on obtaining this information. However, in light of Hurricane Irma there may be a delay in getting the information to you. We will keep you updated once the hurricane has passed and we have access to the government again.

Thanks,

Diana
